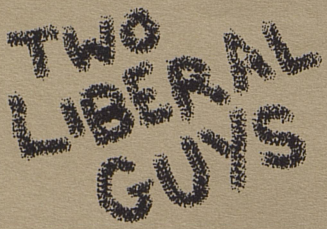
Our fall 1989 Short Plays series continues on November 10th and December 1st. More shows may be added in the future. All shows will be held in the Wherrett Room in Skibo and are free of charge. We look forward to seeing you there!

Scotch 'n' Soda is Carnegie Mellon's student theatre organization which is entirely student run. Each year S 'n' S hosts a variety of events including a fall Short Plays series, and acting, technical, and writing workshops. In addition, S 'n' S produces an annual spring show which is often written by students. Some popular shows which originated in Scotch 'n' Soda include Pittsburgh's first all-improvisational Improv '88, last years hugely successful This is Not a Test, Godspell and Pippin.



Scotch 'n' Soda is currently accepting submissions for its 1989 Short Plays series. We are also accepting scripts for the spring show. All scripts should be placed in the Scotch 'n' Soda mailbox at SKIBO information desk. Feel free to call or stop by our luxurious new office, SKIBO room 60, X-3522.
